Burglar Uses Stolen Credit Card

Investigator Paul Kash with the Lake City Police Department is investigating a vehicle burglary that occurred on January 6, 2010 in the Wal-Mart parking lot. The victim, William Nieves, forgot to lock his car door and went into the store to shop. Mr. Nieves completed his shopping and left. Mr. Nieves realized his credit card was missing and called his bank. He then learned the card had been used and had been stolen. Mr. Nieves filed a Police report.

Investigator Paul Kash has recovered video of two unknown white females at Belk's in the Lake City Mall. One of the females uses the stolen credit card to make purchases.

Anyone having information about this incident or others can contact the Lake City Police Department anonymously on the TIP line at (386) 719-2068.
